

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Side Mission

Mission Briefing

TOP SECRET

Martin Luther King, Jr. is one of America's greatest figures. As the country heads into uneasy times, having just considered selling a state to pay off debt, violence breaking out in the streets, and more, the country needs people like MLK to step up and be positive leaders.

If you can prove that you can be like MLK, you will not only gain a great deal of new followers, but you could also help save your country from where it's heading.

Pick any or all of these!

1. Become a great speaker (5,000 followers possible!)

- a. Find your favorite quote from MLK, and make a “poster” featuring the quote & also an image
- b. It can be done by hand, or printed off if you use a computer
- c. On the back of the “poster,” explain what the quote means & why you picked it

2. Have a dream (5,000 followers possible!)

- a. What is something you are passionate about?
- b. Write a “speech” focusing on the issue, why it bothers you, what you think will help solve it, and what your ultimate dream is in regards to it.

3. Be a positive leader (5,000 followers possible!)

- a. Perform at least 3 acts of kindness - anywhere, anytime
- b. Ex) Help a classmate who drops their books in the hallway pick things up / Tell someone making rude comments to someone else that it is not right and they should stop
- c. When you have done 3 positive things, type them in a doc/email and send to Mr. Armstrong!
